Volleyball: Double Header

Host: April Raab - (404) 314-1495 cell

Cost: Free for spectators

Description: It's a Tall-e-ball Double Header! Come out and support the team for their last game of the spring season and their first game of the summer season. Two games in one night! It should be exciting. When the game starts late, the team usually meets for dinner/drinks two hours before the game. When the game starts early, they go out for snacks/drinks after the game. When they have both an early game and a late game, I'm not sure what they do, so touch base with April if you would like to join them. The team welcomes all the cheerleaders they can get!
