Description:

The weather is good, the spring volleyball season is over and it's that time again...yes, you got it, time for our monthly business meeting. So what better way to meet and celebrate than to do it poolside? As always, we will have burgers/dogs, side dishes, snacks and perhaps even a "surprise" drink left-over from Mardi Gra! And never, never, never forget the jello and cherries!

The party will begin early to enjoy the sun and fun, with a slight intermission for board/business meeting and dinner, to be continued by some moonlight volleyball in the pool. As many of you know, we always have a good time at this event, whether you are a sun worshipper or not, there will be plenty of sun and shade for everyone! So please come on out, if you have or have not done so previously, and enjoy the day with many of your tall friends and not so tall volleyball players.

The party MUST go on, rain or shine, so mark the date, grab your sunscreen, towels and flip-flops and come on down to the booming metropolis of Acworth (or for the locals Lake City).
