

Thursday, June 22, 2006, 6:15 pm
“Niki Nights” at the Atlanta Botanical Garden

Location:

1345 Piedmont Ave NE
Atlanta, GA 30309
404-876-5859

Host: Mimi Kelly 770-490-0541

Cost: $12 entrance fee to Botanical Garden and whatever you spend there.

Description:

Meet at 6:15 in front of the main garden's entrance to enjoy "Niki Nights", the night time viewing of Niki de Saint Phalle's work.

An introduction from the ABG's website: "Much to the delight of the Garden visitors, the magnificent sculptures of Niki de Saint Phalle will also be on view during evening hours until 9 p.m. with Niki Nights every Thursday starting in May. During this time, guests will be invited to enjoy the sculptures specially lit for dramatic effect at night. Food and refreshments will also be available for purchase during Niki Nights."

Website: http://www.atlantabotanicalgarden.org/site/events/niki_overview

Directions:

From I-85/I-75:

1. Exit onto 14th Street and go east.
2. 14th Street dead-ends into Piedmont Avenue. Turn left.
3. The Atlanta Botanical Garden's entrance is on the right at the first traffic light, which is between 14th Street and Monroe Drive.
4. The Atlanta Botanical Garden is adjacent to Piedmont Park on Piedmont Avenue.

MARTA

Take the MARTA train to the Arts Center Station and transfer to the #36 North Decatur bus.

Parking

There is limited parking available at the Garden. Shuttles may be enacted to accommodate overflow parking during special events or if visitation is consistently high. If shuttles are enacted, parking will be available at Colony Square for $4 per car with a free shuttle to the Garden.

Click here for customized directions via Mapquest.