Description: “Dinner at Seven” monthly social event designed to help club members become better acquainted. On the third Sunday of each month, Chuck and Lori will host a dinner in various locations around the greater Atlanta area; a wide range of cuisines and price points will be included. This will be a perfect opportunity to make new friends and reconnect with old ones. Every attempt will be made to personally invite newer members and prospects to the monthly dining event.

Club members will gather in the restaurant bar or reception area starting at 6:30pm; group seating will be reserved for 7:00pm. Participants will be responsible for the cost of their meal and beverages; separate checks will be requested.

Review: A former art gallery has been transformed into a restaurant that you’d expect to find sitting next to the deep blue Mediterranean. Inside the white stucco and blue shuttered building, sit down to a plate of feta and olives, grilled octopus, or stuffed grape leaves and forget that this is Marietta. The menu introduces diners to Greek dishes; start off with hand rolled meat balls (Keftedes), flambéed goats cheese, calamari, or traditional Spanakopita. The large kebobs are tender and many traditional Greek entrees are prepared with imported ingredients. The portions are large so sharing a meal is an option. The wine selection was disappointing but the service staff was quick and well-organized. The baklava was incredible; overall a very pleasant dining experience.
