Description: “Dinner at Seven” monthly social event designed to help club members become better acquainted. On the third Sunday of each month, Chuck and Lori will host a dinner in various locations around the greater Atlanta area; a wide range of cuisines and price points will be included. This will be a perfect opportunity to make new friends and reconnect with old ones. Every attempt will be made to personally invite newer members and prospects to the monthly dining event.

Club members will gather in the restaurant bar or reception area starting at 6:30pm; group seating will be reserved for 7:00pm. Participants will be responsible for the cost of their meal and beverages; separate checks will be requested.

Restaurant Review: Boston has Cheers, while College Park has the Brake Pad. This old gas station turned local bar and eatery is a great place to relax with friends on the patio and watch the trains go by, especially in warm weather. The food is great and the atmosphere is relaxed. One highlight is a plate of fries, topped with jack cheese, bacon, jalapenos and scallions, and served with ranch dressing. Snacks, including creamy hummus and crispy, tempura-battered onion rings, are miles better than your average bar chow. The same goes for top-notch, hefty burgers, from the plain to the messier blue cheese. The shrimp quesadilla, filled with summer vegetables, satisfies lighter appetites. Great neighborhood; great food!
