Description: “Dinner at Seven” is a monthly social event designed to help club members become better acquainted. Chuck and Lori host a dinner in various locations around the greater Atlanta area, usually on the third Sunday of each month. Restaurants with a wide range of cuisines and price points are included. This event is a perfect opportunity to make new friends and reconnect with old ones.

Club members will gather in the restaurant bar or reception area starting at 6:30pm; group seating will be reserved for 7:00pm. Participants will be responsible for the cost of their meal and beverages; separate checks will be requested.

Restaurant Review: If you like Hibachi style Japanese fare, you'll LOVE Edo. Although it rests in the heart of suburban Toco Hills, the bold angles and bright colored interior design make it more reminiscent of trendy Buckhead or Funky Five Points. The ambience is great and the food is marvelous. The sushi was handmade to order and appetizers at our table looked delicious. Steak and scallops proved to be a good choice, and both were cooked just as ordered. Scallops were sweet, and the steak was fork tender. There are a few decent wines on the list, but chilled saké makes the best sipper. They also have Japanese beers on tap. Overall a great dining experience!
