Inman Park Festival and Parade

- Time: Meet at Dunwoody Marta Station; will leave station at 11:00 am; arriving at the Inman Park Marta Station around noon. Parade starts at 2:00.
- Location: Inman Park, Atlanta
Address: A prominent intersection in the area of Euclid Avenue at Elizabeth St
Phone: (770) 242-4895
Website: <http://www.inmanparkfestival.org/>
- Host: Mimi Kelly
770 490 0541
- Cost: Parade and festival are free. Tickets for the tour of homes are $20 at the festival, $15 in advance. If you want to tour the homes, you'll need to arrange that yourself.
- RSVP: Please call Mimi to let her know to look for you. If you can't meet us at the Dunwoody Marta Station, you may be able to time your MARTA journey to meet us at the Lindbergh Station. Parking at the festival will most likely be challenging - so MARTA may really be "smarta"... If you don't find us on the MARTA line, look for us at the Food Tent around 12:45. You know we'll be eating! Call Mimi's cell phone once you're at Inman Park if you can't find us.
- Description: During the last full weekend in April each year, Inman Park proudly presents a neighborhood festival widely regarded as Atlanta's most spirited and eclectic. Highlights include:

- Atlanta's biggest Street Market, offering everything from antique furniture to handcrafted wares.
- A juried Arts and Crafts Show featuring some of the Southeast's finest artists.
- The city's quirkiest and most colorful Parade, led by the Inman Park Butterfly followed by floats, bands, art cars, politicians, drill teams, Kelly's Seed and Feed Marching Abominable Band, clowns, jugglers, and many more. The parade ends with the appearance of the Inman Park Trash Monarch, perched atop the throne-a street sweeper.
- The Festival centerpiece, the Tour of Homes, featuring turn-of-the-century Victorian Painted Ladies and Craftsman bungalows as well as original contemporary designs and loft conversions.
- Live entertainment, including rock-n-roll, blues, swing, jazz, folk, Western, and beyond.
- A Dance Festival that showcases some of Atlanta's best ballet and modern dance companies.
- Children's Activities—with a giant slide, cool obstacle course, relays and more.
- A wide variety of food and beverages on sale throughout the Festival.

The focus of Mimi's excursion is the Inman Park Parade. The parade will make its annual roll through the streets for Inman Park at 2:00 pm on Saturday, April 26, 2008. Now it is 37th year, the parade is Atlanta's quirkiest and most colorful parade led by the Inman Park butterfly, followed by marching bands, floats, art cars, politicians, drill teams, mascots, clowns jugglers, and many more, closed by the Inman Park Trash Queen riding aloft a city street sweeper. Kelly's Seed and Feed Marching Abominable Band are expected to be in the parade and they are great!
